Data Analytics

Join a national data analytics hub

Opportunity

Collaboration
Collaborate and utilise open data sets with the Open Data Institute and Data Mill North in areas including health, transport, business and the provision of local services.

Data hub
Be part of a leading hub for data analysis supported by a significant talent pool with specialisms in health and finance.

Big Facts

Home to the largest public data set in the world (DataIQ, 2018).

Leeds has the largest cluster of data scientists of any UK city outside of London, over 2,000 digital health informaticians work at NHS Digital (Leeds List, 2017).

Home to five per cent of the UK's population, the region has 22 per cent of its digital health jobs.

CORECT-R, a significant project underway to utilise data to improve and save lives in the treatment of bowel cancer.

Leeds Institute for Data Analytics (LIDA), part of the Alan Turing Institute, is a leading centre for innovation in research and industry partnerships for the curation and visualisation of big data.

Company insight

DAZN Perform Group

- World's leading provider of live, detailed sports data via Opta

- Clients include the English Premier League, the NFL, Sky Sports, the Football Association and the BBC

Hudl

- Leader in the field of sports performance and integrated video analysis tools

- Supports many of the world's largest sports clubs and athletes

- Works with every club in the English Premier League

Jaywing

- Developer of Whisper, a social listening tool that analyses millions of data points

- Helps businesses identify who and what is influencing people's behaviour

- Utilises AI and machine learning