

Fact Sheet

Legal services and Legaltech

Join a thriving legal sector

The opportunity

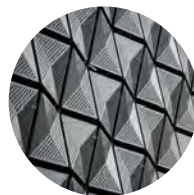

As the largest legal centre outside of London, Leeds City Region is a competitive and cost-effective region offering legal firms access to the right infrastructure, business networks and client pool. With a thriving tech hub, Leeds City Region is also set to become a Legaltech innovation powerhouse. We foster collaboration across traditional legal services and pioneering technology developers.

The facts

£70bn

Largest City Region economy outside of London contributing £70 billion GVA.

Largest concentration of Higher Education Institutions outside London

Home to over 120,000 businesses offering commercial and client opportunities

14,400

1,600 legal companies including 28 of the top 100 law firms have an office in Leeds City Region, employing 14,400 people

2h

Less than 2 hours commute to London

With 8,695 digital tech companies there are more than 50,000 people employed in the tech sector across the City Region

The University of Law, one of the UK's largest legal education providers, has an Innovation and Tech hub in Leeds

3,700

3,700 law graduates per year representing 15% of UK law graduates